Statement of Reasons for Allowance

1. The present claims are allowable over the "closest" prior art Watanabe et al. (U.S. 6,274,646) and Ohta et al. (U.S. 5,954,866) for the following reasons:

Watanabe et al. disclose ink jet ink comprising water, solvent, penetrating agent, surfactant, sugar, dispersant, and methyl methacrylate/butyl acrylate/acrylic acid random copolymer. While Watanabe et al. disclose the use of dispersant that is styrene-maleic acid, there is no disclosure of styrene-maleic anhydride copolymer that is half-esterified as now required in all the present claims.

Ohta et al., which is drawn to ink jet ink, disclose the use of dispersant such as styrene-maleic anhydride as well as disclose the equivalence and interchangeability between styrene-maleic anhydride dispersant and styrene-maleic acid dispersant as disclosed by Watanabe et al. However, there is no disclosure <sup>in Ohta</sup> of styrene-maleic anhydride copolymer that is half-esterified as now required in all the present claims.

Further, it is noted that applicants submitted 1.132 declaration on 11/17/03 wherein ink within in the scope of the present claims, i.e. comprising methyl methacrylate/butyl acrylate/acrylic acid ~~random~~ copolymer and styrene-maleic anhydride copolymer that is half-esterified <sup>is</sup> compared with ink outside the scope of the present claims, i.e. comprising methyl methacrylate/butyl acrylate/acrylic acid ~~random~~ copolymer and styrene-maleic acid copolymer. It is shown that the inks of the present invention are superior in terms of storage stability and discharge stability.

Thus, it is clear that Watanabe et al. or Ohta et al., either alone or in combination, do not disclose or suggest the present invention.

In light of the above, it is clear that the rejections of record are untenable and so, the present claims are passed to issue.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
